A man in San Francisco who has been howling against street improvement has been arrested for allowing garbage to accumulate in front of his house. He is a wealthy man but unenterprising and dirty.

Jim Townsend: "Mining experts" have been keeping the Mountain trails of Inyo county warm for a few weeks past in search of bonanzas. If they find one it will be the first time an "expert" ever found anything. Nine out of ten are frauds and bums, utterly ignorant of mining.

Dr. Williams, of Traver, Tulare county, California, drew his revolver on a witness who was testifying to certain acts of the physician's wife. The Justice of the Peace jumped out of the Courtroom window. After the doctor was disarmed, the judge returned and fined him $20 and one day in prison for contempt of Court.

Bladsoe, the only man in the California Legislature who showed an honest record, is now being vilely attacked by the boodle newspapers. They have received orders to break him down so that he cannot be returned. There has not been an honest man in the Legislature there for some years and they hate to see the record broken.

Knew What He was About.

The editor of the APPEAL has had frequent occasion to admonish Ah Sing on the follies of gambling. Ah Sing has worked for the writer off and on, hence the liberty we take looking after his moral welfare.

We have told him many a time and oft, to shun the tan table, to keep away from the China lottery and the Celestial chuck luck. We have preached against the folly of any monkeying with the blind goddess but it availeth not. Sing invested regularly and paid no more attention to our sermons than the ordinary run of people do to the regularly licensed preachers of this bailiwick.

Yesterday he came into the office and sticking $220 under our nose—taking the precaution to keep between the editorial shears and the open door—remarked:

"You heep d— fool."

We inquired as to the hypothesis on which he founded his conclusions.

"You talkee heep inside hat—lockyee here."

He had caught us in the very act of sticking some Louisiana lottery tickets away in a drawer.

"How much you catch'em last month?"

"Nothing."

"Ever catch'em a d— cent?"

"Never."

"How long you tackle Melican lettee?"

"Six years."

He laughed loud and long.

"Look a here, you heep sucker. See me, I put up two bittee and it clatch two hundred twenty dollar China game."

We made him set up a watermelon for the composers and let him go.

Thinks it Field.

In discussing the forgery of Judge Hoffman's name to a dispatch declining the nomination of a Justice of the Supreme Bench, the San Francisco Star says:

"If such a dispatch was sent, and was a forgery, who could have been the guilty party? We can think of but one person having a motive for committing, and the spirit to commit, such a crime. That person is Stephen J. Field, who was appointed to the place intended for and tendered to Hoffman. Field, if he is innocent, is unfortunate, for his record is such that the people are ready to believe anything to his discredit. And some there are who openly express themselves accordingly in discussing this Hoffman forgery."

The Upper Berth Nuisance.

The California Courts have decided that the Pullman Car Company have no right to keep an upper berth down to merely annoy the occupant of the lower berth. The Pullmans have been grinding this nuisance into the public for years and compel people to dress and undress in the aisle or tie themselves in a bowknot in a space no bigger than a dog kennel. We are glad the law proposes to abate the nuisance but are very much afraid that the sleeping car companies will dig up some nuisance a good deal worse to take its place.

Is There a School Ring?

The Reno Journal makes the following query:

Is there a school ring in Storey county? Miss Jennie Somers of Virginia City, refused a second grade certificate from the Board of Examiners of that county. She came to Reno, and, although a stranger, was awarded a first grade certificate by the Board of Examiners, her standing being 93 per cent. Is the Storey Board actuated by prejudices, or what?

Gored by a Bull.

Jack Money, who works for Charles Rechini at the Corecco milk ranch, east of the Divide, was gored by an enraged bull at about noon Tuesday and severely injured if not seriously. The bull pitched and crowded Mr. Money close to a fence, where he didn't have half a show at him, else there would have been a funeral with the Swiss population as chief mourners.—Enterprise.

These breezes are welcome.

Utah Election Returns.

The Salt Lake Herald publishes the full returns of the late election in Utah Territory. The total vote was 27,900, divided as follows politically: Democratic, 14,157; Liberal, 7,404; Republicans, 6,339.

The Liberal party, which is composed of Democratic and Republican gentiles, carried Salt Lake City and elected several members of the Territorial Legislature. They profess to believe that the Mormons are not sincere in their professions of fealty to national parties, but facts do not sustain the assumption. On the other hand, there are gentiles who contend that the disruption of the Liberal People's parties, into which the people of Utah have heretofore been divided, will mark a new era in the history of Utah, and tend to materially increase the prosperity of the Territory. Heretofore the issues which divide the parties were of a local or personal character. Now they are national, and are based upon the principles which divide the people in other sections of the Union.

The New York Sun, which prides itself upon giving all the current news, stops at reporting Sam Jones' sermons. Says the bright luminary: "The reporters of the Sun have been required to cut down, or we have felt impelled to omit, the reports of many of the sermons recently delivered before crowds of hearers at Prohibition park, Staten Island, by the Rev. Sam Jones, the 'Georgia cracker,' who has been preaching for some time past in the tabernacle there. We are unwilling to permit such language as he often uses in his sermons, to appear in the columns of the Sun."

The power to assess railroads in this State was vested by the last Legislature, in a State Board of Assessors and equalization, which Board consists of the Governor, State Controller, Secretary of State, Attorney General and State Treasurer. This Board will meet in Carson City on the second Monday in September to assess the different railroads within the limits of the State.

San Francisco fruit dealers are dumping their wares into the Bay, while Nevada continues to pay the old prices, hundreds in the sick wards of the hospitals almost dying for fruit can't get any, and the hotel tables in San Francisco continue to serve their guests with peaches as hard as brickbats.

It is said that a Carson man at the Lake sat in a hammock with a lady for over an hour one evening before he discovered that it wasn't his wife. He discovered it when his wife came along and ordered him out. Tableau!
